

Shows the Korean cow with a small load on its back. Driver stands by and holds the rope by which he leads it.

At the left are two men with round top hats - They are Buddhist priests out on a begging expedition. They are considered the lowest people in Korea, and are always addressed in low language, even by children and servants - They are very numerous in this province.

^{Rev.}
Mrs. Baird + J. E. Adams
in Deer Island picture were sister & brother.

Note
(She above is the hand writing of Mrs. Wm. M. Baird, Sr (Annie Laurie Adams Baird) written to her mother between 1891 - 1896

R. H. Baird, 1980